This was a claim by an amah for two months wages at $10 permonth. The defendant admitted owing $16.33, from which she claimed to deduct $5 for some lace the plaintiff had spoiled. It appeared that the defendant had told the plaintiff she was not to give lace to the washerman. but was to wash it herself. In this instance she did not do so, but gave the lace to the washerman, and it came back spoiled. The defendant then sent the aman away and claimed that she was only bound to pay her up to the date of the discharge, and that she was outitled to deduct $5 for the lave spoiled, she having told her at the time of her engagement that she would hold her responsible for enything she spoiled or lost. His Lordship said it was not for every not of disobedience that an employer was justified in turning a servant away, and to could not consider this such an act; the defendant ought to have given the plaintiff notice. ALLEGED OUTRAGES RY

MISSIONARIES Mr. Horace Waller writes to The Times it defence of the Blantyre missionaries. He regret the non-appointment of a British consul-general on Lake Nyassa, and adds :- "If her Majesty" Foreign Office will take a concensus of opinion from all the missionaries, officers, traders, explorers, and sportsmen who have now visite? Lake Nyassa, I think I can ensure a very strong in one to the effect that, although muskets, and arrows prevail to the full in the place of Dr. not one of them is ever likely to be levelled against an officer in authority. The Union Jack is too well understood by the wholesale elave. trader on the coast to be lightly esteemed by his. retail kidnapping brother in the interior. It will be a matter for everlasting regret if the magnificant self-denying enterprises which are in East Central Africa at present are to be hastily rendered orime-encouraging influences by orders from home, called into existence by a pamphlet full of wild statements; and Lonly appeal to the spirit of English justice whom I ask that the report of the Commission sent to Blantyre may be received before the word 'outrage' becomes indelibly attached to what I believe has been a deed done under the most painful impelling of mercy and justice to all.

THE MAORIES OF NEW ZEALAND. A recent census of New Zealand has revealed A correspondent of the Japan Gazette writes the fact that the Macries are rapidly decreasing.

FREE TRADE IN SUGAR.

A letter to The Times in opposition to the principle of the sugar bounties is addressed by Mesers. Hill and Oblson from the West India Committee Rooms. In this the writers quote soveral passages from Mr. Cobden's specches, and proceed as follows: - " Mr. Cobden's policy was not the mere abolition of duties as such, but only. these which favoured monopolies, and it may be inferred that he would have approved of a duty. being imposed upon a particular product if by so doing monopoly was destroyed and the product the world's market, the consumer not being. entitled (according to Mr. Cobden) to mere sheapness in contravention of free trade. The bountyfed beet industry is fast becoming a liure monepoly, and it would be in entire accordance with Mr. Cobden's principles to check it by fiscal means, and thus restore froe trade. He would not allow that the consumer had any right to a contemporary cheapness coincident with the dentruction by the growing monopoly of those natural industries on the success of which (and for on their destruction) his permanent intereste depend. The natural sugar-producing countries only desire what Mr. Cobdon wanted—'justice.'
They do not seek protection; they want to get. gerous form-that of bountles."

An Illinois chap, in describing a galo of wind, with the hourse-building operations, our Consul is not a Bokharan, Khokandian, or Kuivan even, reply, I didn't want him to-be a Roman. Obi Ataiu, a coolie, unemployed, sald-I bought General notified that except these who really who would not endeavour to cast off the Russian would have looked splendid as a policeman."
